THE DEMOCRATIC CONGRESS.

Its Record as Related by the New York "Herald."

The New York Herald, which has been and is trying to persuade the country that it would be a good thing to put the Democratic party in charge of the Government, says, in a review of the work of Congress:

"The record of the session of Congress which began more than seven months ago and ended yesterday, is shamefully barren of important and much-needed legislation. The important measures which demanded the favorable action of Congress were neglected or defeated. It was the duty of Congress to pass a bankruptcy Act and a law for the relief of the Federal Courts. It should have provided for the Presidential succession and for counting the electoral vote. It should have adopted stringent measures for the suppression of polygamy. It was its business to establish a postal telegraph service, do something for the regulation of inter-State commerce and deal effectively with the pension and land-grant questions. Copyright should have been granted to foreign authors, a system of American Courts established in eastern countries and the international system of sea signals adopted. Several constitutional amendments should have been favorably acted on, notably to remedy the legal tender evil and that empowering the President to veto separate items in appropriation bills. This is but a partial enumeration of the important matters that have been inexcusably neglected by Congress during a long session of seven months. For this shameful failure to give the country needed legislation the (Democratic) House is deserving of more censure than the Senate. The Senate passed a bankruptcy bill, an anti-polygamy bill and measures for the regulation of the Presidential succession and the electoral count, but all of these were shelved in the House."

THE NEXT BOARD.

The JOURNAL copies the annexed from its evening column:

What can we say of jovial Tom Hymers that everybody does not already know. One of the best-hearted men in the world, he greets his friends and enemies alike with a cheery salute and a happy hurrah, as free from guile and deceit as if no one ever harbored them against him. Mr. Hymers has been County Commissioner before and knows the county business as well as he does his own. He was always prompt, active and prudent, preferring public business to his own or anybody else. No one doubts Mr. Hymers' ability to do his share of managing the business, and with C. A. Lee and S. O. Fogg for the other members a more painstaking or competent Board could not be had. Mr. Lee has a good name everywhere. He is a prudent, sober and truthful man and has always had the respect of his neighbors. If he goes into this office, the desire of his heart will be to make a faithful and successful administration. He is an old resident of the county and knows no other home. All his interests and the associations of his manhood are centered in Washoe county and it is an honorable ambition to serve a term in public office. It is a high ambition and a worthy motive. It leaves a tradition to his children which a poor man in the Old World never could give to his, and it will be dear to them, if not to him, as showing that he stood well in his county and was worthy of notice. Mr. Lee, as a candidate, is a representative of his party, and Republicans do their party an injustice if they decide not to vote for him, unless on good grounds, which we do not believe can be found.

Can't Go Cleveland.

The Chicago Tribune gives the following list of Irish-American and Catholic journals that have bolted Cleveland:

"The Irish World, Irish Nation, Tablet, Freeman's Journal, Weekly Union and United Irishmen of New York; the Catholic Herald of Boston, the Catholic Telegraph of Albany, the Catholic Universe of Cleveland, the Celt and Citizen of Cincinnati, the Chicago Citizen, the Rocky Mountain Celt of Denver, and the American Celt of St. Louis support Blaine. The Catholic Review of Brooklyn, the Catholic Union of Buffalo, the Catholic Mirror of Baltimore and the Northwestern Chronicle of St. Paul refuse to support Cleveland and give a quasi-support to Blaine."

DEMOCRATIC SHOES.

Why They Couldn't Tell the way the Horse Went.

The Sacramento Bee relates this:

In his speech Monday evening, at Sacramento, the Hon. Joseph McKenna told a story that was received with shouts of laughter. Speaking of the crooked record of the Democratic party, and of its facing both ways on various questions he was reminded of an incident that had been related to him as having occurred in Sacramento the other day. A Democrat took a horse to a blacksmith shop, and said:

"I want you to put a set of Democratic shoes on that horse."

The blacksmith happened to be a Republican, a quick-witted fellow, and he answered immediately:

"All right, sir, I'll put a set of Democratic shoes on him."

The owner of the animal then went away; returning some hours afterwards he found the horse newly shod. The fore shoes were on all right but the hind shoes had been nailed with the toes pointing backward and the heels in front.

"Ja—rusalem!" yelled the owner, "what kind of shoeing do you call that?"

"That's the way you wanted him shod," retorted the blacksmith. "You told me to put on a set of Democratic shoes, and there they are. Now you can get on that horse and ride along the roads, and through the lanes, and across lots, and all hell couldn't tell by his tracks which way he had been traveling."

WISE MEN WANTED.

The Republican party has ever been the friend of the public schools. It has built them up, and intends to preserve them. It puts its best men on the boards, and gives them the means to carry them on. The nominations for trustees on their ticket would fill any place on the whole ticket with credit, and in giving their time to the duties of the office without compensation they prove their love of learning and desire for the public welfare. Their work is not so much as for the future. Bad men might easily squander public money and even if they did not they might make poor officers. There is a skill required, which a coarse or bad man would not have, in the selection of teachers and choice of methods, and a tact necessary to the maintenance of successful discipline, which is as rare as valuable. W. E. Gould and Geo. H. Taylor are well known to be the men for the place, and they will be elected beyond a doubt.—Gazette.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Feb. 21-sw-lyr

SUMMONS.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, in and for the county of Washoe.

The State of Nevada sends to W. H. CLANCY, its Attorney General, to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant, by Sophia M. Clancy, as plaintiff, in the District Court of the Seventh Judicial District, in and for the county of Washoe, State of Nevada, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this summons—exclusive of the day of service—if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said District, and in all other cases forty days, or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to recover a judgment and decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between you and the said plaintiff on the ground of willful desertion and failure to provide for the said plaintiff and her children. Plaintiff also asks for the custody of her three children, Charles William, Claud and Don, all of which will more fully appear from the complaint, which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court at Reno in said county. And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 29th day of October, A. D. 1884.

P. V. JULIEN, Atty for Plaintiff.

STAND BY THE ASSEMBLY TICKET.

The Republican party cannot afford to have a Democratic Legislature under any circumstances. Do not let your personal dislikes or likes regarding any Senatorial candidate sway you in this matter. The Democrats are engineering their fight against the legislative ticket and will trade the rest of their ticket for this part of the contest. Republicans should see that their Assembly ticket is elected at all hazards. Washoe is the banner Republican county in Nevada and it cannot hold the title if it allows the Assembly ticket to be lost.

Mr. Blaine says: "The custom that has grown up on the part of some European countries of sending their paupers to the United States ought not to be longer tolerated. If in European countries their laws tend to impoverish their working people, those countries ought to take care of them when reduced to want, instead of shipping them to us. Still more objectionable is the practice of shipping their criminals to us, as has been done in some cases, the criminals being released from punishment on condition that they shall come to the United States. I think this a very great offense against this country which should not be permitted." On the same subject Mr. Cleveland says:

The Sacramento Bee says it is getting late in the campaign for argument. There can be little doubt that pretty much all the intelligent voters—those who would be influenced by reasoning—have already made up their minds how they intend to vote. No new arguments are likely to be forthcoming. Lying and forgery, however, will probably be resorted to, as usual, by the Democratic National Committee, and the people should be on their guard against such fabrications as the Morey letter, which lost this State to the Republicans in 1880. Sensible voters will pay no attention to any productions of the Democratic forgery bureau which may be telegraphed from the East between now and election day.

Uncle Sam's credit in 1860 was so poor that his 6 per cent. bonds sold at 36 per cent. discount. Now, bonds of the same character are worth 20 per cent. premium. The first period was after a long Democratic administration, the second after a Republican administration of twenty-four years.

No American ever stood closer to the people than James G. Blaine does today. No man ever so fully represented the principles, sentiments and forces which make up the vital energy of American civilization. The people believe in Blaine and he believes in them.

Mr. Blaine demands that there shall be a free ballot and a fair count in every State in this Union. On the same subject Mr. Cleveland says:

Jimmy Fair says he feels sure of Nevada for Cleveland. The Democrats say, however, that the Senator has not yet shown up his "sack."

It is estimated that Woodburn will go to the Sink of the Humboldt with 800 majority, and this will certainly elect him.

Present a solid, unbroken front on Tuesday next, Messrs. Republicans.

Look out for campaign lies of every sort from now until election day.

The Next Senate.

The election which is to come off Tuesday is expected to make material changes in the political complexion of the House of Representatives. The Senate may also be affected, but in a lesser degree, by the result. The Washington Star furnishes the following speculations as to its future, a recital of which will just now have especial interest to politicians:

The Senate now stands 33 Republicans, 36 Democrats and 2 Readjusters—Mahone and Riddleberger. As the Virginia Readjuster party has now formally adopted the name and principles of the Republican party, Messrs. Mahone and Riddleberger may fairly be classed as Republicans, giving that party 40 members of the Senate, or a majority of four. On the 3d of next March the terms of twenty-six sitting Senators will expire—fourteen Democrats and eleven Republicans. Four Democrats have already been elected as successors for retiring Senators of that party—Blackburn, Eastis, Wilson and Payne, in place of Williams, Jones, Groome and Pendleton—and one Republican has been elected to succeed Slater, Democrat, of Oregon. So that the Republicans have already made a gain of one, and should each party retain the seats it now holds by electing successors to its retiring members, the next Senate would stand 41 Republicans to 35 Democrats. Of the retiring Senators, whose successors have not been elected, it is quite certain that seven will give way to Democrats, viz: Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Missouri, North Carolina and South Carolina. These, with the four already chosen, make the Democrats quite sure of eleven of the fourteen places they must vacate. One seat they have already lost, and the two doubtful ones are California and Indiana, now held by Farley and Voorhees respectively. Of the eleven seats to be vacated by Republicans it is safe to estimate that Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania and Vermont, six States, will return Republicans. Wisconsin, perhaps, may be classed likewise, leaving, of the coming Senatorial vacancies on the Republican side, Connecticut, Illinois, Nevada and New York in doubt. These, with Indiana and California, make six States in which the battle for control of the next Senate must be fought. Of these the Democracy must carry four to bring their force up to 39, a bare majority of the Senate, while the Republicans are required only to carry two to maintain their control.

The Republican Turnout.

A New York Tribune editorial says: There cannot be two honest opinions about the business men's parade. Every one who saw it must admit, if he speaks truthfully, that it was the most significant demonstration of the kind which ever took place in this city. In numbers it was three times as large as the Democratic parade of last Saturday, and the crowds which lined Broadway from the Battery to Madison Square to greet it with continuous cheers, was tremendous. Its quality was also superior. All the business interests and the great trades of the city were represented by their leading men, and the size of each delegation was remarkable. The enthusiasm of the citizens in line, as well as that of the spectators, was astonishing, and all this despite the rain, which fell heavily.

The Christian Indorsement of Blaine.

A New York Tribune editorial says: The visit paid to Blaine by the Christian ministers of the country is an incident unparalleled in the history of political canvasses. Representatives of Presbyterian, Congregational, Baptist and Methodist churches, united with the Catholic priest, the Jewish rabbi, Quaker preacher and colored minister from the South, in extending to the Republican candidate assurance of sympathy and support. When a thousand clergymen take part in a demonstration so emphatic and so significant, the fact must arrest the attention not only of the public here but of the people of the whole country.

Mr. Blaine says: "This nation today is in profound peace with the world; but in my judgment it has before it a great duty which will not only make the profound peace permanent, but shall set such an example as will absolutely abolish war on this continent, and by great example and lofty precedent, shall ultimately abolish it on the other continents." On the same subject Mr. Cleveland says:

Every Southern State will go for Cleveland.

FOR FUTURE YEARS.

The Gazette says:

It is doubtful if any officer on the ticket is any more important than that of the one which goes to the control of the education of our youth. We could better afford to elect a man who would lose a lawsuit or steal our money than to give a man control of our public schools who would allow false doctrines to be taught. The influence of the teachers and officers who come before the little ones with the stamp of authority from their parents is simply enormous and impressions made are liable to last for all time and bias a whole lifetime in dozens of cases. No line of life has developed faster than that of conducting public schools and it is very important that we get the benefit of the most advanced ideas on this subject. The Republicans and some of our Democratic friends will have the pleasure this Fall of voting for Dr. John A. Lewis to fill the position of Superintendent of Public Schools in Washoe county. He is thoroughly educated himself and possesses the taste for such matters necessary to success. He is up to the times in everything of the sort and will be an efficient and industrious officer.

With C. W. Jones in the office of Public Administrator, if anybody should happen to die and leave a few dollars in property, they can be perfectly easy about its disposition. It will be quite in the line of the work he is best acquainted with to manage such affairs, and that everything will be well done and honestly managed is best proved by his past life. He has done any quantity of business in this county involving immense sums of money in the aggregate, and it has gone as smooth as could be wished. He is eminently a man to be trusted, and will prove a faithful officer if elected.

Senator Jones.

The Senator spoke at the Opera House in Carson last night, and the chances are that he warmed General Bob Clarke pretty thoroughly. There is no good reason for the detraction of Senator Jones by any one, and least of all a Pacific Coast man. John P. Jones is a pioneer miner of the Pacific Coast, and all his thoughts and sympathies are with the people of the coast. For Clarke or any one else to speak of John P. Jones as a man who would injure our people is a silly waste of breath. Every man of sense knows that it is to the interest of John P. Jones to do that which is to the interest of all our people, for his coin is in alongside of that of our working miners in many a claim from Arizona to Alaska. Besides, when Bob Clarke and others start in to injure Jones, they do not realize that they have more men than Jones to fight. Mr. Jones could very well afford not to say a word. The men who have been staked by Mr. Jones in all manner of enterprises on this case should arise and speak for him. Mr. Jones is to-day boiling beans from one end to the other of the mineral portion of our land. And not always are these pots-boiling in big enterprises. The majority are very humble pots, but it is all the same. We hear now and again that John P. Jones is broke, that he is flat on his back. He is not "broke," and never will be broke as long as he walks the earth and retains his senses. The reason is this, that in every mineral-producing country he has men working for him. There are, of course, many failures—many men who faithfully climb the hills and endure the heats of Summer and the frosts of Winter, who find nothing. No men are more sorry than they when they are obliged to report, and no men are more kindly received than are these "poor lame ducks," who came limping into the Gold Hill office after a whole Summer spent in the wilds. If the Senator is not there to receive them his brothers are, and no man ever went hungry away from the Jones mansion. Now the reason why Jones can never be broken up or busted up on any kind of proposition is that among the army of men who are working for him—half of them as much through friendship as favor—there are always a number that are making valuable, and not a few really wonderful discoveries. These men, who have been traveling up and down the country for years, are only too glad to report discoveries, and would have their right hands cut off before they would allow information to go from them that would not first reach their patron.

The indications are that the coming Legislature will be nearly unanimously Republican.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

BREVITIES.

To-morrow will be "steamer day."
Republicans should be on their guard against bogus tickets.

Word comes from Pyramid that the furnace is doing excellent work.

The Board of County Commissioners will hold their regular monthly meeting to-morrow.

Ticket No. 170, held by Mrs. S. C. Fogus, drew the handsome French mirror at the Catholic Fair.

By calling at the Granite saloon you may get a chance to sample some of George Becker's Pacific beer.

John Mackay went through to Virginia yesterday morning for the express purpose of being there to vote.

The Reno Township ticket, comprising Young, Nash, Gould and Taylor, and Douglas, should be elected.

The local train on the V. & T., which has been arriving here at 11:15, has changed the time of arrival to 12 m.

Laycock and Griswold were Union soldiers. Cast your ballots for them as they cast their ballots for four years.

The Republican county ticket is conceded to be much the best ticket, and all who have the welfare of the county at heart will vote it.

Gent's underclothing, the best in the world, can now be had at reasonable rates of Abrahams Bros., at the White House.

The Reno market is well stocked with apples just now, and best of all, the most of the fruit was raised in Washoe county.

The Pacific standard time went into effect at noon yesterday. Within a month it will be universally adopted on this coast.

The Republican County Central Committee have opened rooms on the past side of Virginia street, near Quinn's hardware store.

The Correct Sabbath Day.

TRUCKEE MEADOWS, Oct. 28, 1884.

ED. JOURNAL.—Believing that free discussion on the Sabbath question will result in much good, and possibly may be the means of approximating the correct day of divine worship, I take this opportunity to write a few lines on the subject. I believe it is conceded by most theologians that this earth we inhabit is round or nearly so, which makes it impossible for suntime to be simultaneous over the whole world, consequently there has got to be some locality or line designated, running north and south, from pole to pole, where the first, the seventh and every other day of the week is to begin. For an illustration, we will suppose that Virginia street, in Reno, is on the direct route of this line, when it was Sunday on the west side of the street it would be Saturday on the east side, or a difference in date of exactly one day. Now, for all we know, the Creator might have intended the route of this line separating the two days to be in the vicinity of Virginia street, Reno, instead of the Pacific ocean, where it was placed by the civilized nations, for commercial and other reasons. As we figure dates now, before the ministers of the Pacific Coast are through singing their Sunday evening hymns, the ministers of Europe are out chooping their Monday morning's wood. If it is such an essential thing for our future happiness that we keep the correct day of worship and no other, we hope the new version of the old testament will point out the exact locality where the two days are to be separated so there can be no mistake.

INVESTIGATOR.

A Splendid Number.

The issue of the Irish World, of Nov. 1st, is a mammoth double sheet, and in every sense a splendid publication. It is devoted to a review of the great political issues now before the people, and editorially takes a bold stand in favor of Blaine and Protection and against Cleveland and Free Trade. Patrick Ford and his Irish World have been a tower of strength in this campaign to the cause of good government.

Address to Republicans.

HEADQUARTERS REPUBLICAN COUNTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE.
RENO, Nev., Nov. 1, 1884.

Republicans:—Vote for your County Ticket. The nominees are competent, and will make efficient officers. The county has at least two hundred Republican majority. Why not elect a full county ticket for once?

DR. A. DAWSON,
Chairman.

State Senator.

The office of State Senator is one that should be filled by a man of ability, energy and business tact. With such a man in the Legislature the citizens of the county can rest assured that their interests will be taken care of. Such a man is H. L. Fish, the Republican nominee for Senator from this county. Therefore voters should remember him on election day.

Roll of Honor.

The following is the Roll of Honor of the North Truckee School for the month ending Oct. 24th: Bessie Gault, 98.7; Katie Kinney, 98.6; Emma Burch, 98.6; May Kinney, 96.5; Lottie Shaber, 94.5; Josie Gulling, 92.8; Minnie Smith, 92.2; Charlie Ross, 91; Emma Ross, 90.6.

ELLA BISHOP,
Teacher.

A Success.

The ladies who conducted the Fair in aid of the Catholic Church have footed up their receipts and disbursements, and have reason to congratulate themselves upon their success. The receipts of the Fair, after deducting expenses, amounts to $1,045, which will relieve the church of all pressing claims.

Baptist Church.

Services will be held to-day by the pastor, Rev. E. B. Hatch, at the usual hours, 11 o'clock A. M. and 7 o'clock P. M. In the evening a lecture will be given on the "First Day or Christian Sabbath," to which all who feel any interest in this subject are especially invited.

Every citizen should hear Hon. H. F. Bartine at the theater Monday night. It will be one of the best as well as the closing speech of the campaign.

BREVITIES.

P. R. Fuson and J. L. Downs are turned to Wadsworth last night.

Ben James was in from Huffaker's yesterday surveying the political field.

Bartine will close the Washoe county campaign at the theater Monday night.

E. L. Bridges and C. F. Cook returned yesterday from the northern part of the county.

Nick Hammersmith will be found, razor in hand, at Coleman's barber shop, on Virginia street.

Gen. Clarke spoke again in Carson Friday night, and for two hours devoted himself to Senator Jones.

District Attorney Alexander and several others went out to Pyramid yesterday and held a meeting there last night.

Wm. Holmes, who has had charge of the work on the N. & O. extension, came in from the front Friday evening.

John Douglas has the work of replanking the iron bridge about half completed. It is a substantial piece of work.

Under the management of Mr. Dealy the Lake House has become one of the most pleasant and popular hotels in the country.

Mrs. Sprague denies the statement that she intends to sue the Virginia and Truckee Railroad Company for the accidental death of her son.

Mrs. Julia A. Foot, colored evangelist, will preach to-day at 11 o'clock at the room of the Salvation Army, corner Virginia and Second street.

It should be a point of honor with Republicans to vote the straight party ticket this election, because it represents the best elements of the community.

Young Duffy, who was arrested for the shooting at the Palace last week, was discharged from jail Friday evening, and yesterday morning took the train for Carson.

Nathan Levy, a Winnemucca merchant, and his brother, were in town yesterday taking a look at the lay of the land, with the view of establishing a business in Reno.

Uncle John Richardson is perhaps the only saloon man in town that can meet the wants of the St. John men, as he never fails to keep a supply of fresh buttermilk on hand.

Hon. Wm. Woodburn captured the gold-headed cane that was displayed at the late Catholic Fair in Virginia. The cane was voted away under the supervision of Miss Mamie Egan.

It is very important that every Republican on the Legislative ticket should be elected. The next Legislature elects a United States Senator. Work for the whole ticket.

Artesian Wells.

The Sierra Valley Leader is informed that parties near Loyalton are about to invest in a well-boring apparatus and propose to test it in an attempt to obtain water by tapping the subterranean water courses which flow beneath the surface. Such an attempt will doubtless produce most satisfactory results, as it has always maintained that artesian wells can be obtained in abundance in many portions of the valley. Once successful in these experiments the value of land, now almost worthless, would be greatly enhanced.

The Block System.

It is expected that the Westinghouse "block" system will be inaugurated by the Central Pacific Road about the 1st of January, as the plant has been shipped from Pittsburgh.

Meeting at Washoe City.

R. H. Lindsay, Esq., will address the citizens of Washoe City and vicinity at Washoe on Monday evening, Nov. 3d, on the political issues of the day.
